Up to Date Service.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON, the Eye Specialist, keeps on hand a full stock of Spectacles and Eye Glasses of different makes, but there are so many cases where something special is needed that he does not depend on stock goods. He MAKES everything to exactly fit the case in question. Only those who have trouble with their eyes or who have made a thorough study of the science can appreciate the importance of having every detail just as it should be. And this service is furnished at a few hours' notice. All is done right here in Greensboro.

INQUIRIES ANSWERED.

More Evidence That The Dispensary is a Good Thing.

The following statements have been received in answer to the questions printed as to the working of the dispensary. The first one is from Florence, and the second from Gaffney, S. C.:

Does it increase or decrease drinking?

Decreased about 50 per cent.

What effect does it have on the morals of the community?

The very best, taking into consideration the effects of alcohol.

State whether or not it decreases crime and cost of criminal proceedings, jail expenses, etc?

Yes.

State whether or not it removes to any extent temptation from the young?

The greatest benefit is that it removes temptation from the young. No fancy drinks and alluring barrooms to attract.

Has it retarded the growth of your city?

No.

Has business been injured by it?

Improved.

How does the revenue received from it compare with that received under the saloon system?

Considerably less, but we need less police protection.

Has it grown in favor with the people?

Yes. When it first went into effect it met with opposition on all sides, but it has steadily grown in favor.

J. L. Barringer.

Florence, S. C.

SAME QUESTIONS BY OTHER PARTIES.

Does it increase or decrease drinking?

Decreases.

What effect does it have on the morals of the community?

They are much improved over bar system.

State whether or not it decreases crime and cost of criminal proceedings, jail expenses, etc?

Yes.

State whether or not it removes to any extent temptation from the young?

Greatly. This I consider one of its best features. Their being nothing social in connection with the dispensary and early closing.

Has it retarded the growth of your city?

Not the least.

Has business been injured by it?

No, general business better.

How does the revenue received from it compare with that received under the saloon system?

The revenue from high license is greater than that received from the dispensary but it is at the expense of general business.

Has it grown in favor with the people?

Yes, very much. There is no question but that the dispensary system is the best solution of the whiskey problem yet advanced. It does away with gambling, loafing and other social features generally found with the saloon and as it closes at 7 o'clock this is a great safe guard to the young.

Carroll & Carpenter.

Gaffney, S. C.

Complaint for Police.

There has been no small amount of complaint today about the congregation of drunken negroes around the bar rooms near the C. F. & Y. V. crossing. A large crowd of filthy, drunken negroes has been standing around there all day, making it disagreeable for decent, self-respecting people to pass those places. In such inclement weather it is impossible for the negroes to work and they gather around the bar rooms to spend the day drinking. The police should look after this matter and disperse the crowds that congregate on the street corners.

An Eye to Business.

That sees and seizes your opportunity, will make you comfortable, and, perhaps, rich.

One great chance now awaits your good judgement at our store. Flannelets, cuttings, Worsts and heavy underwear at prices that will justify you in purchasing, and even laying away for future use. A splendid line of shoes that we must move to make room for spring goods. Any style, any size, any price. 514 South Elm street. J. E. Scott.

Give Them Your Aid.

A bureau of general information regarding the resource of Greensboro and this section is being organized by G. T. Kearsley & Co. This is a movement which has among its possibilities the means of doing a great deal for the city, and we believe will be heartily approved and aided by our citizens.

Ladies have you seen the "Original Carlisle shoes sold for $2.25 at Thacker & Brockmann's? They are the best fitting, best looking, best wearing shoes in the city for the price.

The Daily Graphic says: "By this act of folly the insurgents have not only courted defeat, but have regularized the position of the Americans in the archipelago, and have obtained for President McKinley a free hand in the expansion policy, which the senate has seemed reluctant to give him.

Americans and Insurgents in a Hot Engagement.

SLAUGHTER FOR THE INSURGENTS

Impossible To Estimate The Loss to The Filipinos—Americans Completely Routed The Natives.

Manila, Feb. 5, 5:15 p. m.—The long expected rupture between the Americans and the Filipinos has come at last. The former are now engaged in solving the Philippine problem with the utmost expedition possible. The clash came at 8:40 yesterday evening, when three daring Filipinos darted past the Nebraska regiment's pickets at Santa Mesa, but retired when challenged. They repeated the experiment without drawing the sentries' fire, but the last time Corporal Greeley challenged the Filipinos and then fired, killing one of them and wounding another. Almost immediately afterward the Filipino line, from Calvoan, commenced a fusillade which was ineffectual. The Nebraska, Montana and North Dakota outposts replied vigorously and held their ground until re-enforcements arrived.

The Filipinos, in the meantime, concentrated at three points, Calvoan, Gagalangin and Santa Mesa. At about 1 o'clock the Filipinos opened a hot fire from all three places simultaneously. This was supplemented by the fire of two siege guns at Balik-Balik and by advancing their skirmishers at Palco and Pandacan. The Americans responded with a terrific fire, but owing to the darkness they were unable to determine its effect.

The Utah light artillery finally succeeded in silencing the native battery.

The Third artillery also did good work on the extreme left. The engagement lasted over an hour.

The United States cruiser Charleston and the gunboat Concord, stationed off Malabon, opened fire from their secondary batteries on the Filipinos' position at Calvoan and kept it up vigorously. At 2:45 there was another fusillade along the entire line and the United States monitor Monadnock opened fire on the enemy from off Manila.

Rev. R. G. Miller, of Durham, who has been conducting a series of protracted meetings in Asheboro, passed through town this morning returning home.

D. C. Aldridge went to Greensboro with a view to making a contract with J. H. Neese for the Confederate monument.

J. M. Walker went to Randleman today.

T. S. Cecil spent Sunday at his home in Thomasville.

Messrs. C. N. Lyon and Harry Donnell, of Greensboro were in town this morning.

HOW THEY GOT ARMS.

This Question Now Disturbing the Washington Authorities.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The government has determined to discover who recently supplied the insurgents with modern guns and ammunition. A prominent official is authority for the statement that German agencies have largely supplied the Filipinos with arms. It is said that thirty thousand stands of arms were secured in Hong Kong for Aguinaldo by a German firm and that the German consular agent there was instrumental in effecting the purchase. The agent is said to have participated not as an official but as an individual.

THE PEACE TREATY.

Good Sermon.

Rev. Dr. Frank H. Wood, presiding elder of this district, preached a strong, practical sermon to the congregation of Centenary church last night. It was his first sermon at that church since he has been on this work.

Mr. Wood is one of the oldest and ablest men in the conference, and his sermons are always helpful and greatly appreciated. The quarterly conference of Centenary church will be held next Wednesday night after prayer meeting.

COLORED COMPANY ARRIVES.

The Greensboro company of the third (colored) regiment came in on No. 36 yesterday and was met at the station by several hundred friends.

Every colored soldier who left Greensboro has now returned, Capt. Gilmer having brought back every man who left with him. Capt. Gilmer has been a good officer and had a well-disciplined company of men. The demonstration given the men here was quiet and orderly.

A SOLDIER IN JAIL.

Officer Weatherly, who was on duty at the Southern depot yesterday, arrested Arthur Long, one of the ex-soldiers, and confined him on No. 36 for carrying concealed weapon. Long had his coat buttoned tightly and the print of a pistol was plain on the outside.

The officer pulled the pistol from the pocket, and before Long had time to tell many friends "howdy" he was being "drilled" to jail.

PURE VILLAINY.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Winston last week for the purpose of making the cohabitation of the white and black race a felony. The Caucasian of Feb. 2, says it is a ridiculous bill, and adds that it corroborates what Dr. Kilgo, Josephus Daniels and Editor Manly have said and that "the bill certainly is intended to correct and prevent the crimes charged by these three gentlemen. Now those who believe that Drs. Kilgo, Daniels and Manly slandered the white women of North Carolina should wait on Mr. Winston and order him to withdraw that bill at once."

For consummate villainy and malicious representation Butler's paper takes the cake. To say that what Dr. Kilgo, Mr. Daniels and the negro editor Manly have said means one and the same thing is to LIE. No other word fits the case. The man who wrote those lines in the Caucasian and coupled those three items together is a black-hearted villain, a traitor to humanity and a far worse man than the negro editor himself, who was run out of Wilmington by the righteous indignation of an outraged people.

No man has ever denied that there are remote cases to which such a law as Mr. Winston proposes would apply and the necessity for such a law is increased by the infamous fusion doctrines which the Caucasian has advocated the past six years. The very places where such cases as this law is designed to prevent will every time be found in the homes of that class of citizens where the Caucasian has wielded its strongest influence. You will never find it where pure thought and race superiority has been properly instilled into the minds of the youth of the state.

That vicious, scurrilous and foul-mouthed sheet misnamed the Caucasian should be driven from North Carolina as the negro editor was driven from Wilmington.

The question of handling the wires and gas, water and drainage pipes in great cities, and even in towns, is becoming with each year one of greater importance. A prize was offered to the engineers of the United States by The Cosmopolitan magazine for the ablest article suggesting a scientific, economic solution of this problem. The paper of Henry F. Bryant has been selected by the committee as the one most ably meeting the conditions. It appears in the February Cosmopolitan.

An effort has been made, and by a man who should be far above such a thing, to leave the impression that the discussions on the dispensary in the court house were by "men selected because they were in favor of it." The truth of the matter is that both sides were invited and a "free and full" discussion asked. It is no fault of dispensary advocates if their opponents refused to accept the invitation.

Simultaneous with the statement that "the long-expected rupture between the Americans and Filipinos has come at last" we are greeted with the message from Washington that "the news came like a shock to the administration." We see no reason for the "shock" to the administration if the trouble has been "long-expected." But perhaps the administration, in its wisdom, was not expecting it.

The Charlotte Observer, with its accustomed enterprise, comes out this morning with a full sized paper telling of the battle between Americans and insurgents in the Philippines. The Morning Post, of Raleigh, however, was the first to give the news to North Carolina, announcing under a big head yesterday morning.

Horrible agony is caused by Piles, Burns and Skin Diseases. These are immediately relieved and quickly cured by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless imitations. Howard Gardner.

AS HEARD IN GALVESTON.

What the News Says of the Brebany Concert Company.

Much interest now centers in the Brebany Concert Company, which is to appear in this city at the academy of music on Wednesday night of this week. That our people may read the opinion of a competent critic, we copy the following from the Galveston (Tex.) News:

The concert given by the Louise Brebany company at the Y. M. C. A. last night was one of the very best entertainments that has been given in the star course. Nearly all the company are artists, and those who are not are excellent entertainers and gave a very interesting evening.

Miss Louise Brebany is a magnificent soprano. She has a voice of wide range and great power. It is a voice that holds the audience spellbound at times, especially in some of those charming little ballads she chose for encores. In the middle register her notes are not always clear, but her upper notes are not only remarkably clear but they are taken with the greatest ease, and in crescendo are given with magnificent power. She has a clever little trick with her voice which is an imitation of the art of the ventriloquist. It is a birdlike note which she holds sweetly and clearly, to the exquisite delight of all who have the pleasure of listening to her. Besides having a splendid voice, Miss Brebany is a handsome woman.

Mr. George Dethlefs, the baritone of the party, has a grand voice and under splendid control. He rendered several selections in the course of the evening that were listened to with breathless attention. His is a voice of wide range and great power. He makes his hand's work with precision and ease. He makes no work of his singing, no matter how great the strain on his voice or the demands of the selection. He and Miss Brebany appeared in a duet and made the hit of the evening vocal work.

Miss Jessie Waters, mezzo, has a pleasant voice and a piquant manner. She rendered a solo and responded to two encores as a result of her single appearance in solo work. She also is a pretty woman, and added to that has a very charming stage presence. Hers is a voice of wide range, but has a metallic tone that is not always agreeable.

Mr. Herbert Wheately, tenor, has a good voice. He appeared in solo in the early part of the program and responded to an encore.

Miss Agnes Pringle with her violin captured the audience. She is apparently scarcely more than a child, but she knows more about the violin than some people know about the alphabet. She is grown in the handling of the bow. She makes the music come and the most delicate way depicts some very delightful musical phrases. Her selections were well chosen, and gave the audience the greatest delight.

The man who made the hit was that old gentleman who was on the program as W. Guillaume Sauviet, the eminent pianist. Without knowing the circumstances the statement is ventured that he is the "father" of the party. He is a kindly appearing old gentleman, whose whole soul is in his work. He plays the piano without ostentation or frills. His selections are invigorating and easy to understand. He executes with an ease and grace that is seldom exceeded and he gets more real delightful music from the piano than most of those who are entitled to be called "eminent."

A Change in Firm.

We beg to call your attention to the change in our business, "The Greensboro Pressing Club." We have this day associated with us two of Greensboro's most popular young business men, Messrs. J. H. Boone and C. B. Bogart, and feel sure they will give prestige to our already established club. We make the changes for the purpose of extending our business to Charlotte, Asheville and Wilmington.

We have added to our work force and we are prepared to get work out very promptly in the future. Thanking you for your liberal patronage in the past, and soliciting a further continuance of same, we remain,

Yours very respectfully,

A BIG SUCCESS.

The attraction at the academy of music on Friday night will be that laughing success, "Side Tracked," presented by a capable company and adequately if not gorgeously staged. The play is a comedy drama, bordering on the farce, chock full of fun and bristling with just enough sensation to balance the mirth effects. The principal character is a tramp. The tramp has done a great deal to bring out the humor of many plays of late, but it is rarely that he acts both as comedian and hero; but the one in "Side Tracked" is a very realistic tramp, he does many laughable things, rescues the heroine, foils the many schemes of the villain, prevents the other hero from being hanged, makes love to the soubrette and altogether works himself into the hearts of his auditors, as a genial, kind hearted fellow, even if his clothes are ragged. Mr. E. H. O'Connor, who assumes the part of the tramp, is a capital actor and a clever singer and dancer. Her notes are not always clear, but her upper notes are not only remarkably clear but they are taken with the greatest ease, and in crescendo are given with magnificent power. She has a clever little trick with her voice which is an imitation of the art of the ventriloquist. The Streets of New York.
It was lunche time and the "frankfurter and roll" men of Frankfort street were doing their best to appease the appetites of the 200 or 300 newsboys who throng Park row. One of the dealers in giving change to a buyer accidentally dropped a dime, and before he had time to pick it up his brother dealer quickly stooped down and grabbed it. Then ensued an argument in a way which only "frankfurter men" can argue, each claiming that he had dropped the dime. It is very likely they would be arguing yet had a young fellow of the Bowery type who had chanced to witness the trouble interfered. Walking up to the one who had really dropped the money said:

"Dat's yer dime dat bloke has, ain't it?"

"Yes."

"Well, say, how much will yer give me if I gets it back for you?"

"A nickel," was the answer.

Then, addressing the other contestant,

"Say, you got that feller's dime, 'cause I saw you take it. But, say, if I don't take it away from you how much will you gimme?"

"Six cents," was the quick reply.

"All right; hand over." The bargain was concluded just as a policeman came running up and grabbed the one who had dropped the dime and took him to the station house for disorderly conduct.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Punctual Man.

A certain Mr. Scott of Exeter whose business required him to travel constantly was one of the most famous characters for punctuality in the kingdom. By his methodical habits, combined with unwearied industry, he accumulated a large fortune. For a great many years the landlord of every inn in Cornwall or Devon that he visited knew the exact day and hour he would arrive. A short time before he died, at the advanced age of 80, a gentleman who was making a journey through Cornwall put up at a small inn at Port Isaac for his dinner. He looked over the bill of fare and found nothing to his liking. He had, however, seen a fine duck roasting on the fire. "I'll have that," said he.

"You cannot, sir," replied the landlord. "It is for Mr. Scott of Exeter."

"I know Mr. Scott very well," replied the traveler. "He is not in your house."

"Very sorry," said the landlord, "but six months ago, when he was last here, he ordered the duck to be ready for him this day exactly at 9 o'clock."

And to the amazement of the traveler, who chanced to look from the window, the old gentleman was at that moment entering the inn yard about five minutes before the appointed time.—Harper's Round Table.

An Acceptable Clock.

A well known professor sometimes became so much interested in his lecture that when the noon bell rang he kept the class five or ten minutes over the hour. Certain restless spirits among the students thought they would give him a gentle hint, so they bought an alarm clock set it to go off precisely at noon and placed it on the professor's desk when they came in to the next lecture. They knew that he was a little absent-minded and expected that he would note it.

As the noon hour struck the alarm went off with a crash, and those of the class not in the secret started and took in the joke at once. There was a round of applause. The professor waited until the alarm and the appliance were over and then said: "Young gentlemen, I thank you for this little gift. I had forgotten it is my birthday. An alarm clock is something my wife has needed for some time. It is a very kind remembrance on your part."

The professor then went on to finish a demonstration interrupted by the alarm.—London Tit-Bits.

A Bad Dream.

It is not likely that any English speaking people understand so keen and punctilious a devotion to the niceties of language as that which characterizes the French grammarians. We may help ourselves to understand it perhaps by reading a story told of M. Lamany.

One night lately he awoke and sprang out of bed with a wild cry. His wife came running. He was in alarm and despair.

"Why, what is the matter?" she gasped.

"I dreamed," said the professor. "Oh, I had a horrible, a heartrending dream."

"What was it?"

"I dreamed I was talking, and I distinctly heard myself utter a sentence which had a grammatical error in it."

Two Lockouts.

Editor's Wife (from second story window)—You don't get in this house at any such hour of the morning as this.

Editor (appealingly)—But, my dear, I was unavoidably detained at the office. You see, we have late news of a tremendous accident—and—

Wife—All right; you've got news of another now (slamming down the window).—London Answers.

Flags That No Longer Wave.

Of 85 flags shown in a "Flag of all nations" supplement to a London weekly in 1858 11 have disappeared, among them those of the East India company, of the Ionian islands, of Tuscany, Naples, the States of the Church, of the Russian-American company and of Sarawak.

Sickly Creatures.

Jennie—Herbie, it says here another octogenarian's dead. What's an octogenarian?

Herbie—Well, I don't just know what they are, but they must be awfully sickly creatures. You never hear of 'em but they're dying.—Brooklyn Eve.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla.

This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

(The New York and Florida Limited) leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a.m., via the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2:20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 3:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and August 9:30. Brunswick and Jekyll Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York and Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyll Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. and F. E. C. R. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thewatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

For La Grippe.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease.

It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Congressman W. J. Stone, of Kentucky, appeals for the democratic nomination for governor, on the Chicago platform and is an anti-expansionist.

For La Grippe.

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash Ave., corner Jackson St., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia.

For sale by C. E. Holton.

Superintendent J. M. Greenwood, of the Kansas City (Mo.) public schools, is a candidate for librarian of congress.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Carolina, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows:

"I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was most yellow, eyes swollen, tongue swollen, pulse rapid, belly in rock and sides; no appetite; gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up.

Fortunately, a friend advised trying Eryngi Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement, notwithstanding the use for three weeks and now I am well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Richard Turner spent yesterday in Reidsville.

W. H. Matthews went to Durham at noon today.

J. Sam Ingram spent Sunday at his home in Reidsville.

J. C. Goodman of Winston, passed through the city last night going to Danville.

Mrs. D. T. Hayden and Miss Ada Thomas spent yesterday in Reidsville with friends.

Mrs. M. J. Pinchback, of Richmond, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Bass, on Fayetteville street.

E. L. Armentrout left at noon for Goldsboro, on business for the Cape Fear Manufacturing Company.

Apply for loans on real estate through Wharton & McAlister. They also have some good houses for rent.

We regret to learn that Mr. W. M. Adams is confined to his home on Lee street, with a severe attack of the "grippe."

A party composed of A. F. Brooks, S. E. Hudson and others, left at noon today for Manchester, to spend a few days fox-hunting. Luck to them.

Ladies gossamers to be closed out at cost by J. M. Hendrix & Co. the cash dry goods and shoe store. See ad in top left-hand corner on first page.

One hundred acres of unimproved property in corporate limits of Greensboro is offered for sale today—as a whole. See ad of Wharton & McAlister on first page.

Joe Lee, the faithful wash man, catches on to the go-a-headative spirit. He says tell the people I am in the Telegram, read me, come and see if I mean what I say.

Officer Scott, Saturday night, arrested Joe Austin, a negro wanted in Winston for larceny. A Winston officer came after the prisoner today, and carried him back to that city.

The price for the Brehaney concert has been reduced for this city from 50, 75 and $1.00 to 25, 50 and 75 cents. This is a big item and should be appreciated by our music loving people.

District Attorney A. E. Holton, of Winston, passed through the city last night enroute to Asheville, where he will conduct the prosecution of the Asheville bank wreckers. The trial opens on the 15th inst.

A special train consisting of an engine and one Pullman car passed through the city this morning, about 8 o'clock, bearing a private party from Baltimore to High Point, where they go to spend a few days hunting.

The county commissioners are in session today. Chairman Boren is confined to his home by an attack of the "grippe" and Commissioner Ragan is acting chairman in Mr. Boren's absence. Only routine work is being done.

When the peace treaty was signed at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Calleigh Brothers were engaged in opening new goods, which they receive daily. Their stock is complete. Largest and most varied stock of valentines ever sold in the city.

As usual when a mistake is made the printer catches the blame. The penny ad of J. E. Scott, Saturday, should have appeared in the local column. Mr. Scott says the goods offered are at actual cost, and his truthfulness is not doubted.

Jim Ferrell and Haywood Smith, who have been in jail here since Saturday were taken to Reidsville on today by Officer Scott. The two negroes are charged with breaking into J. S. Hutchinson's store in Reidsville, goods taken from the store having been found in their possession.

We call your attention to the notices today of the Greensboro Pressing Club. Our young friends Clarence Bogart and Jay Boone have associated themselves with Messers. Jenkins & Mitchell. Jenkins and Boone will go to Asheville tomorrow to establish a branch there and Mitchell and Bogart will remain here for the present. We wish them abundant success.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

A hearing in the matter of the dispensary bill will be given by a joint meeting of the committees of the senate and house of the general assembly at Raleigh on Thursday, Feb. 9th, at 3 o'clock p.m. This notice is given in order that those who oppose the dispensary for Greensboro may be present and may have the same opportunity to be heard against the dispensary as will be given to those who favor it.

Heavy Travel.

The number of traveling men in Greensboro Saturday night and yesterday was almost unprecedented in the history of our hotels. The McAdoo house accommodated more guests than at any time since Mr. Perkins has been connected with it, and a number of people were turned away, the management even sending the porter to the train Saturday night to tell would-be-guests not to come, as they could not be accommodated.

The other hotels in the city also had about as many guests as could be accommodated.

On the Road.

Tom Rice is now a traveling salesman, having accepted a position last week with Spragins, Buck & Co., one of the largest and most reliable wholesale shoe firms in Baltimore. We wish Mr. Rice much success in his new work and are glad to know that his enterprises here will do business as heretofore. Goose grease will still be manufactured and will continue to cure all sprains, bruises, aches and pains, while Mr. Rosenblatt will continue to sell and repair jewelry at "The little store around the corner."

Men don't have a chance every day in the week to buy three dollar shoes for $1.98. Thacker & Brockmann still have two or three dozen to sell at that price—sample shoes, odd pairs, etc. Better go and secure a pair before your size is sold out.

Mass Meeting in Court House.

A mass meeting of citizens will be held in the court house on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. It is important that every friend of the dispensary bill be present.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, children's ears, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay refund. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. F. Holton.

The county commissioners are in session today. Chairman Boren is confined to his home by an attack of the "grippe" and Commissioner Ragan is acting chairman in Mr. Boren's absence. Only routine work is being done.
